Funeral Plans from Memorial Woodlands

Memorial Woodlands offers excellent quality funeral plans as part of the dedicated service we provide to the families that we look after.

Investing in a funeral plan today will ensure that your family is not burdened by surprise costs at a time of emotional distress. We know from our years of experience that our customers often feel a great sense of relief, even calm, once they have put their affairs in order.

Our funeral plans are flexible and cover everything from a simple service at a crematorium to a service in our chapel and burial in our cemetery, followed by lunch for family and friends with exclusive use of our reception rooms and gardens. We offer their use for the morning, the afternoon or the whole day. The choices are yours and it is our pleasure to be of service.

We offer two plans which can be altered to suit. The first is elegant and ensures that all requirements are met and that you and your family are looked after, to the highest standards and with the utmost dignity and respect, in the trusted hands of a Memorial Woodlands funeral director.

Our second plan is more versatile. It includes the elegance of the first plan whilst also offering you choices regarding transportation, floral arrangements, menus and most importantly how your friends and family will mark and remember this rite of passage.

Please discuss burial plots and interment rights with your funeral director.

Disbursements

A funeral plan is comprised of two parts. The first part is what Memorial Woodlands provides and the second part is what Memorial Woodlands organises, these are called disbursements. The costs of disbursements are not within our control so the funeral plan allows for the current prices of items such as cremation and the doctors' fees. If these prices have risen at the time of the funeral your executors will be asked to settle the balance.
